CELEBRATING: Because of a prize-winning poster and slogan Dudley Elementary fifth grader Taylor Rossell created for Dawson County's ABLE (Advocating for Business, Labor and Education) program, she received a trophy and a pizza party with her classmates. Her teacher Barb Hicken said Rossell's slogan was "A Great Today and a Better Tomorrow." Hicken said the poster took first place out of more than 400 submissions.
