

Welcome home soldiers

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Friday, 23 April 2010 20:13 - Last Updated Friday, 23 April 2010 20:14

TEARY-EYED HOMECOMING: Gothenburg resident Aaron Johnson is reunited with his daughter Danikah after returning home Friday with the 1195th Transportation Company of the Nebraska National Guard from deployment to Iraq.

The company arrived in Kearney for a homecoming ceremony that included a visit by Gov. Dave Heineman. Other GHS graduates and members of the company who were greeted upon arrival included Rachel Tobaben and Robert Schwanz. Johnson's wife Mia is pictured left.