

Art Club founded

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Wednesday, 16 September 2009 23:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 16 September 2009 23:04

NEW OFFICERS: A new art club has been organized at Gothenburg High School. Art teacher Travis Coe (front, left) is pictured with newly elected officers who are also in the National Art Society. They are, l-r: Front—Kristi Block, parliamentarian; Vanessa Linegar, historian; Back—Susan Dudley, vice president; Eric Stevens, president; Amanda Bodfield, treasurer.

Not pictured: Haley Scheidt, secretary. The club is taking orders for flowers through Sept. 18 through Ribbons & Roses which will be delivered to the public and to students Friday to raise money for the club. To buy flowers, Coe said to call the business at 537-3999 or the school at 537-3651, ext. 5108.