The Swede speech team continued its winning ways by taking the top spot in four of nine events at the “Best of the West” meet in North Platte Saturday.

Each Swede team member broke into finals and came home with a medal at the varsity-only meet which was a new one hosted by the Bulldogs.

Ashlee Bruntz was a double winner in both entertainment and humorous prose.

Teammate Maddy Costello placed first in informative speaking while Chris Block and Jeramie VanAcker teamed up for top honors in duet acting.

Speech team adviser Dan Jensen said he was pleased with how the team performed.

“This is a tough time of year for keeping the intensity up and the momentum going but these students did it once again,” Jensen said.

The contest was smaller in size with 21 schools in attendance, he noted, but the teams were comprised of district competitors for the most part.
