

Eager Easter egg hunters

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Thursday, 28 April 2011 13:40 -

THEY'RE off: Three age divisions scrambled for candy and coins contained in plastic eggs Saturday at the city four-plex during First State Bank's annual Easter egg hunt. Three bikes were also given away in each age group to children who found notification in an egg. Pictured are kids, aged 5 to 7, who are starting to race for goodies after the rope is dropped.