

Magic man speaks to elementary students

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Thursday, 05 November 2009 16:52 -

Well-known motivational speaker and magician Aaron Eisenberg performed for Dudley Elementary students in the performing arts center Monday afternoon. With humor, magic and volunteers from the audience Eisenberg presented a message about self worth. Fifth-grader Andie Geiken (right) helped Eisenberg with a toilet paper trick where he eats it and pulls a long string of multi-colored material from his mouth.