CANOE CREW: Canoeing is just one of several activities Dudley Elementary fifth graders get to enjoy during their annual trip to Halsey National Forest.

This year, youngsters and sponsors went May 15 and 16. Pictured, youngsters haul in their canoe on the Middle Loup River. They are, l-r: Michelle Stuhr, a parent of a student, and fifth graders Alexis Boyd, Preston Smith, Kylee Stuhr, Bennan Seitsinger and Jacob Barkmeier.
