

Tricky business

Written by Deb Egenberger

Friday, 27 July 2012 13:37 - Last Updated Friday, 27 July 2012 13:47

SURPRISE INSIDE: Rebecca Crown (right) finds one red foam ball turned into two inside her hand while she assisted magician Cody Landstrom who helped the Gothenburg Public Library celebrate the close of the 2012 summer reading program on Thursday.

Landstrom, of Fort Collins, CO, is a third generation magician and circus performer. He is visiting 72 libraries in the Midwest this summer.

