

Sen. John Wightman recovering from stroke

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Thursday, 27 September 2012 13:50 -

State Sen. John Wightman of Lexington is at Madonna Rehabilitation Center in Lincoln where he's undergoing rehabilitation after what officials called a moderate stroke on Sept. 16.

Wightman's staff said the 73-year-old was transported from his home in Lexington to Bryan LGH in Lincoln where he underwent treatment and evaluation.

Cards and letters can be sent to Wightman at Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital, 5401 South St., Lincoln, NE, 68506.