

Meeting a famous Husker

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Thursday, 25 October 2012 13:53 -

MOVTIVATOR: Former Husker defensive back DeMoine Adams spoke to TeamMates mentors and mentees Oct. 17 in the Gothenburg High School performing arts center about mentors who helped him along the way. Adams also shared college scholarship information available through the TeamMates mentoring program. Top, Adams visits with mentees Nikita Peklo-Earll (center) and Nicole Hines. Right, Adams talks about the ingredients in Hamburger Helper that are needed for the final product, much like caring people available to help.

