

Turnquist bench donation

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Wednesday, 26 December 2012 20:25 - Last Updated Wednesday, 26 December 2012 20:35

Place to sit: The daughter and son-in-law of the late Max Turnquist stopped at Gothenburg Public Schools Friday to see a bench placed outside Dudley Elementary that was bought with money donated by the Turnquist family to the Gothenburg School Foundation. Turnquist was a long-time supporter of the school and was board president when the bond issue to build Dudley Elementary was passed. Pictured are, l-r: Foundation board member Rick Zarek, Mitzi (Turnquist) Stinson of Grand Island, kindergartners Taylor Burge, Zoie Holbein, Holden Maline, Charlie Horn, Barrett Stinson and foundation member Verlin Janssen.