Leeum Joseph Graber makes appearance six days into new year

When Karmyn Ramirez arrived at Gothenburg Memorial Hospital during the wee hours of Sunday morning, she wasn't thinking about having a New Year's baby.

Ramirez was in the throes of contractions.

However she and her fiance Zach Graber, both of Elwood, were alerted to the possibility by Dr. Carol Shackleton upon their arrival at the hospital, even though the due date was three weeks away.

"She said it looked like we were having the New Year's baby," Ramirez said.

At 7:30 a.m., Leeum Graber was born, weighing 6 pounds and 12 oz., and 18 inches long.

Graber said he kind of wanted him to be born on New Year's Day which would have been his maternal grandmother and step-grandfather's anniversary. Michelle and Don Hyde of Gothenburg are those grandparents.

Ramirez said she was excited to have the New Year's baby and also happy Leeum was born healthy.

Manuel Ramirez, Jr. of Elwood is the grandfather.

Paternal grandparents are Doreen Graber of Oxford and Mervin Graber of York.

Dorothy Henry of Gothenburg is the maternal great-grandmother and Julia Zulkoski and Manuel Ramirez, both of Cozad, are maternal great-grandparents.

Paternal great grandparents are Teresa and Ruben Feldman of Oxford.
