

She's ready for Relay For Life Norseen organizes grocery store team

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Friday, 31 May 2013 13:22 -

For Jennifer Norseen, participating in this year's Dawson County Relay For Life was a no brainer.

Nor was deciding to organize a team with fellow employees at Peterson's Supermarket where Jennifer is a supervisor.

Jennifer has family members and friends who have survived, and died, from the disease.

"I think the relay is good because it takes all the money raised and gives it to the American Cancer Society to find a cure for cancer," she said.

The fact that this year's event, July 12-13, is at Gothenburg's Lake Helen is another reason Jennifer wanted to participate and be a team captain.

Her mother, Jane Norseen, was diagnosed with breast cancer 12 years ago.

"She found out when my brother was a senior in high school," Jennifer said, noting that Jane is now a 12-year survivor and is on the supermarket team.

Jennifer's boyfriend, Jason Walls of Cozad, has also had cancer.

In addition to Jennifer, Jane and Jason, Peterson's Supermarket team members are Kelly Schmeackle, Terri Sayer, Ligia Peterson, Joyce Walls (a survivor from Ogallala) Autumn Rivera,

She's ready for Relay For Life Norseen organizes grocery store team

Written by Elizabeth Barrett
Friday, 31 May 2013 13:22 -

Stormy Bonifas, Terri Wilder, Travis Miller, Heather Miller, Tyson Miller, Jayden Miller and Kody Miller.

Another local team is the "Holy Walkamolies" from Gothenburg State Bank.

The relay kicks off at 6 p.m. on Friday, July 12, with the survivor lap.

To register as a team, go to www.relayforlife.org/dawsoncone or call Pam Ackerman at 308-324-2230, email PACKERMAN1@UNL.EDU.

ebarrett@gothenburgtimes.com

308-537-3636

TEAM FUND RAISERS
The Peterson's Supermarket team is: <ul style="list-style-type: none">■ having a garage sale Saturday, June 8, at Jennifer Norseen's house at 1919 Ave. D. The team wants to raise at least $1,000.■ selling cardboard signs honoring people who have died and moons in honor of those who have survived cancer. The signs will be posted at Peterson's with a minimal cost of $1 and are available at store registers.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">■ selling luminaries for $10 that will be lit the night of the relay in memory of those who have survived and died from cancer. Contact Jennifer at 537-2948 or 252-7107 if interested.■ Jennifer will also decorate the luminaries if desired.■ hosting Karaoke for a Cure the night of the relay on July 19 where people can make a donation and sing a song.