

Bikers blow into city

Written by Elizabeth Barrett

Thursday, 06 June 2013 13:31 -

FINISHING third leg: More than 600 bicyclists pedaled into town Tuesday as part of the annual Bicycle Ride Across Nebraska (BRAN). Most of the riders pitched tents on the practice field west of Gothenburg High School. Many visited sights in and around the city including a matinee and evening show at the Sun Theatre. On Wednesday, bikers headed for an overnight stop in Kearney. Pictured are, l-r: Scott Braly of Lincoln and Susan and Matt Hutt of Scottsbluff.