

Gas siphoning problem locally

Written by Gothenburg Times
Thursday, 03 April 2014 15:23 -

Gothenburg police are investigating a rash of gas siphonings around town.

In the past two weeks, five incidents were reported to police in areas throughout the city.

Police officials suggest that residents park vehicles in driveways and garages or buy a locking gas cap if parking on the street is the only option.