Dan Yancy's team posted a low score of 55 to win back-to-back Memorial Day golf scrambles at Wild Horse Golf Club on May 31.

The team of Yancy and Matt Sell, both of Gothenburg, Tim Davis of Cozad and Randy Beinhoff of Kearney shot 29 and 26 to take top honors in the championship flight. The same foursome won last year with a score of 54.

Taylor Hershberger's team was the first-place finisher in the first flight shooting 57 with Andrew Thompson's group winning the second flight at 60.

Nick Swan's foursome finished first in the fourth flight with a score of 63.

A total of 36 four-person teams competed in the tournament.
