

Henke heading into retirement

Written by Deb Egenberger
Wednesday, 13 October 2010 21:08 -

Longtime Gothenburg High School golf coach Jim Henke has coached his last Swede meet.

Henke and his wife, Judy, plan to split time between their home in Gothenburg and a new bungalow outside of Nashville, TN, where both of their children live.

Henke said they plan to volunteer with a program called Hands-On Nashville, helping to teach golf to legally blind players.