

Poor shooting again at Cozad

Written by Deb Egenberger
Thursday, 20 January 2011 23:04 -

COZAD—The same nemesis that has plagued the Gothenburg girls all season returned to the court with the Swedes at Cozad Thursday night.

“We just couldn’t put the ball in the hole,” said Gothenburg coach Tim Peterson.

The Swedes led 5-4 at the end of the first quarter on a three-pointer by Karen Franzen and a bucket from Taylor Wolf.

The Swedes were still ahead 10-6 with five minutes to go in the first half.

But when Cozad got the upper hand after Carly Henry hit her third of four three-pointers midway through the second period, the Swedes couldn’t get a handle on the game again.

The Haymakers took the rivalry contest 38-20.

“We were up 5-4 after the first quarter and could only manufacture 15 points the rest of the game,” Peterson said. “Defensively we didn’t play bad. Sure it was ugly but it was ugly on their side too.”

Trailing 17-10 at halftime, the Swedes were unable to score at all in the third quarter. They went 0-for-11 shooting in the period and didn’t even make a trip to the free throw line.

Payton Prall finally ended the drought with a field goal at the

Poor shooting again at Cozad

Written by Deb Egenberger

Thursday, 20 January 2011 23:04 -

Find the complete story and individual statistics in our print edition. Receive the entire issue of the Gothenburg Times on-line in PDF format each Wednesday for only $25 per year. Call 308-537-3636 to subscribe.