

Trap shooters open 2011 season

Written by Deb Egenberger
Thursday, 17 March 2011 13:38 -

DONIPHAN—The Gothenburg Youth Trap Team opened the 2011 Mid-Nebraska Trap Shooting Conference season Saturday among 327 shooters.

Adrian Eggers of Elwood, who shoots with the Gothenburg team, won the boys high handicap award from the 18- to 19-yard line by shooting 45-of-50 rocks.

Alex Ballmer finished with Gothenburg's senior level high overall score of 89-of-100 while Dade Brock had the best junior score at 40-of-50.

There are 15 team members this year under new coaches Larry Simants and Allen Jensen. Four did not compete on Saturday because of Gothenburg school's spring break.