Three Gothenburg volleyball players were among the 18 girls honored with all-conference post-season recognition following voting by Southwest Conference coaches last week.

Senior Jacey Wiggins, who led the Swedes in several statistical categories this year, was voted to the all-conference first team.

Sophomore Tiani Reeves, a middle blocker and hitter, was also named to the first team. She led the Swedes in hit attempts and kills.

Junior Regan Geiken earned all-conference honorable mention.

SWC runner-up Ogallala, which qualified for state in Class C-1, had two girls named to the first team with two on second team and one honorable mention.

SWC tournament champion Minden had four selections.
