Fourteen Gothenburg athletes have been honored by Southwest Conference coaches for their performance during the fall season in volleyball, golf, cross country and softball.

Volleyball selections to the all-conference teams were voted on by coaches.

Senior Emily Max makes a return appearance on the volleyball all-conference first team. The middle hitter was selected to the first team as a junior and made second-team all-conference as a sophomore.

Junior Ali Clark, who plays libero for the Swedes, made the SWC second team.

Ogallala had the most players honored with seven while Minden had four, Valentine and Ainsworth each three and Cozad and Broken Bow two apiece.

This is the second year the conference has recognized participants in golf and cross country.

Those athletes' positions on the all-conference teams were determined by their finish at the Southwest Conference meets.

Three golfers earned recognition. Sidney Thompson and Liz Graham made the all-conference second team while Jourdan Matthies got on the third team.
