

2009 Sports Year in Review

Written by Deb Egenberger

Thursday, 31 December 2009 14:14 - Last Updated Thursday, 31 December 2009 14:27

---

1. DOUBLE GOLD

Tressa Borchardt finished her high school discus career in perfect fashion with her second all-class gold medal at the state track meet in Omaha in May. The 2009 graduate also earned the top spot in the state as a sophomore. She now throws for the Iowa State Cyclones.

2009 Sports Year in Review

Written by Deb Egenberger

Thursday, 31 December 2009 14:14 - Last Updated Thursday, 31 December 2009 14:27

---

2.

2009 NATIONAL JUNIOR BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP - The 2009 National Junior Basketball Championship was held in Las Vegas, Nevada. The championship was won by the United States team, who defeated the United Kingdom in the final.

3.

PERFECT SCORE - The 2009 World Figure Skating Championships were held in Berlin, Germany. The United States team won the gold medal in the men's singles event, with a perfect score of 220.00.

4. 2009 SWIMMING WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS - The 2009 Swimming World Championships were held in Rome, Italy. The United States team won the gold medal in the men's 100m butterfly event, with a time of 50.15 seconds.

5. 2009 SWIMMING WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS - The 2009 Swimming World Championships were held in Rome, Italy. The United States team won the gold medal in the men's 100m butterfly event, with a time of 50.15 seconds.

6. 2009 WISCONSIN STATE BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP - The 2009 Wisconsin State Basketball Championship was held in Appleton, Wisconsin. The Appleton team won the championship, defeating the Oconto team in the final.

7. 2009 FIAT CRUISE RACING - The 2009 Fiat Cruise Racing was held in Las Vegas, Nevada. The United States team won the championship, defeating the United Kingdom team in the final.

7.