Kottwitz, Miller earn champion medals.

Head coach of Gothenburg's wrestling team Tom Scott was confident the Swedes would compete for a championship at Gothenburg's Invite Friday.

With the teams present, he said he thought Gothenburg could go 4-1 against the competition but instead the Swedes finished in fourth place with a 2-3 team record.

Reality set in after just one dual in where the Swedes fell to eventual champion Sargent/Burwell 57-18.

"They were by far the best team there," Scott said. "We would've had to get some upset wins in that dual to beat them," Scott said.

The Swedes then faced district opponent Broken Bow and got a big win at the 106-pound weight class, Scott said, but fell to the Indians 45-24.

He added the Swedes didn't wrestle up to potential.

"We struggled against them in that dual," Scott said. "We didn't compete well as a team."

However, Jayden Miller won his match by sudden victory after tying the score as the final second expired.

It took Gothenburg one more dual to find a winning solution. The Swedes lost a 37-30 match against Ainsworth.

Gothenburg suffered two big point swings, Scott said, when he had wrestlers winning their match before getting pinned.

“That’s a nine-point swing,” Scott said.

After three duals, there was an intermission before the final two duals.

A spark was lit under the Swedes, Scott said, as Gothenburg wrestled much better to win its final two matches.

“If we wrestled all our matches like we did the final two, we could have been 4-1, I think,” Scott said.

Gothenburg beat second-place finisher High Plains 52-24 in its fourth dual of the day and finished the invite with a 44-26 victory over the Irish of North Platte St. Patrick.

“Our guys got off the bottom better in those matches,” Scott said. “They got escapes and reversals.”

Although the Swedes finished with a 2-3 team record, some Gothenburg wrestlers accomplished their first medals: Talbot Buchholz, Seth Pertiner and Tyler Miller, each third.

Skyler Kottwitz and Jayden Miller were champions going undefeated in their respective weight classes while Tyler Alvarez finished in a three-way tie for first place.

Bryce Larson was awarded a second-place medal while Tyson Miller earned a third-place medal.

Gothenburg will prepare for a dual in Hershey Thursday at 7 p.m. by conditioning and competing in practice.

“We will condition heavy early this week and work with guys getting off the bottom in their matches,” Scott said. “We must create competition in practice and get something similar to being in a match.”
