

Six earn all-conference honors

Written by Deb Egenberger
Thursday, 22 March 2012 14:32 -

Three Brady girls and three Eagle boys earned post-season recognition from basketball coaches in the Sandhills Conference.

Seniors Courtney Widick, Maggie Burke and Megan Polt were voted to the SHC all-conference team by coaches from the seven participating athletic programs.

Other players on the all-conference team and the school they represent are: Kelli Bowlin and Sami Schmidt, Cody-Kilgore; Sarah Ramsay, Hyannis; Madison Tomlinson and Clara Vinton, Mullen; Shelby Saner and Michalea Miles, Sandhills/Theford.

Girls receiving honorable mention were: Neyva Flores and Taylor Vasa, Arthur County; Lindsay Adamson, Cody-Kilgore; Hannah Haney and Jessie Schwanebeck, Hyannis; Kaitlin Marten, Sandhills/Theford; Torie Opela and Sammy Riedel, Stapleton/McPherson County.

For the boys, seniors Sawyer Burke and Tyler Egenberger and junior Zach Mann were named to the SHC all-conference team.

Other boys on the SHC team were Jordan Trimble and Hunter Walker, Arthur County; Riley Rice, Mullen; Cole Taylor and Tyler Lee, Sandhills/Theford; and Austin Starr and Sawyer Hanna of Stapleton/McPherson County.

Players receiving honorable mention include Morgan Barnes and Chance Vackiner, Cody-Kilgore; Gunner Johnson, Hyannis; Josh Vinton, Mullen; Brady Marten, Sandhills/Theford; and Chance Connell, Stapleton/McPherson County.

The three Eagle boys also garnered post-season recognition by the Lincoln Journal-Star.

Burke was named to the Class D-2 all-state second team by the newspaper while Egenberger

Six earn all-conference honors

Written by Deb Egenberger
Thursday, 22 March 2012 14:32 -

and Mann received honorable mention.