

Brady Days 2012

Written by Deb Egenberger

Thursday, 09 August 2012 14:18 - Last Updated Thursday, 09 August 2012 14:22

Celebration takes village 'Back to the Future'

LEADING THE WAY: The Johnson family of Brady was collectively honored as grand marshal for the annual Brady Days parade hosted by the Lions Club Saturday morning. They were carried on a wagon driven by Terry Grasz.

Six generations of the family have left their mark on the community. Winners in the five parade divisions were: Babes in Toyland, commercial; Brady United Methodist Church, non-profit; Lincoln County Sheriff's Posse, animals; Randy Dishman, wheels; Rhythm Nation Dance Team, miscellaneous.

Brady Days 2012

Written by Deb Egenberger

Thursday, 09 August 2012 14:18 - Last Updated Thursday, 09 August 2012 14:22

