

Cub Scout kindness appreciated

Written by Ted and Bettie Haney, Gothenburg
Thursday, 26 September 2013 18:03 -

Saturday, as the parade was winding down, a young lad dressed in a Cub Scout uniform stopped, smiled and said, "Hello." He then proceeded to share the candy he had gathered.

Not many young people today have the kindness and selflessness that this young man had.

I presume the lady with him was his mother—she should be very proud of this boy!

God bless you young man.